Democrats vs. Republicans: The Debate 2010

On 2 November 2010 members of US Congress will be elected in the Midterm Elections. Very few times in American history has there been a vote as decisive as this year's election. A global financial meltdown has been averted yet the economic and employment situation for many Americans is still challenging which has given rise to a desperate group of highly dissatisfied Americans organized into "Tea Parties". Has President Obama done enough to effect the changes he promised? What do the "Tea Parties" stand for and will they effect the election? What will be the impact of the election on the rest of the world? In cooperation with the US Consulate, Frankfurt and the DAZ For more information please contact Ed Wilson, ☎ 0711-8892252
