Black History Month Film Screening Special (Original Version with German Subtitles)

With a brief introduction by “Let's Read” group leader

Katherine Schmidt

The film is based on the Pulitzer Prize winning play by August Wilson. Set in the 1950's in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the film focuses on an African American working class father who struggles to find his place in society. He is barred from living his dream due to his skin color and is now working as a garbage man to support his family. Come and join us for a captivating film event and learn more about the complex relationship of this family and their neighbors.

With drinks and snacks – Free admission.
